

Kennings – A somewhat ambiguous figure of speech used to replace a noun. Often appears as compound words.

Example – Bone-chamber for the human body.

Life-liquid

Sleep of the sword

Ring-giver

Battle-sweat

Bane of wood

Serpent's lair

Sail-road

Sky's jewel

Weather of weapons

Breaker of trees

Note-taker

Knowledge-giver

Number-cruncher

Grass-cutter

Detention-dispenser

Kennings from the text: